Farmville VEC Office to Relocate

RICHMOND—The Virginia Employment Commission (VEC) office located in Farmville will be relocating in the near future. The current building will be vacated by the VEC by May 15 due to the sale of the building. Services will be provided to the public from the current location through April 30.

Staff at the Farmville office will be temporarily deployed to the VEC offices in Lynchburg and South Hill until a new building is found.

Unemployment insurance claims can be filed, and job services registration and searches can be conducted by Internet at www.VaEmploy.Com. Services for employers, such as posting jobs, finding applicants, filing and paying unemployment taxes, filing appeals, and finding valuable labor market information, are also available at this Website.
