Falls Church, VA

Time: 11:30AM - 2:00PM

Lunch to be served at 12:00pm

The Northern Virginia Employer Advisory Committee, in partnership with The Virginia Employment Commission, invites you to attend this key event.

Our panel: Economic Development Directors from each of our five Northern Virginia jurisdictions and a senior executive from the Virginia Employment Commission (VEC) will discuss the economic drivers and conditions in Northern Virginia for the next 18 months.

The Moderator: Dr. Stephen Fuller, Director, Center for Regional Analysis at George Mason University

The Panelists:

- Rick Slusher, Regional Director, Virginia Employment Commission
- Tim Kestner, Economist, Virginia Employment Commission
- Dr. Gerry Gordon, President & CEO, Fairfax Economic Development Agency
- Stephanie Landrum, SVP & CFO, Alexandria Economic Development Partnership
- Jennifer Ives, Deputy Director, Arlington Economic Development Office
- Tom Flynn, Director, Loudoun Department of Economic Development
- Jeffery Kaczmarek, Executive Director, Prince William Department of Economic Development

This event will provide stimulating discussion and debate on a topic that is driving our plans for future business development and competitive positioning. We encourage you to attend this NVEAC meeting and other meetings planned to encourage information exchange between employers in Northern Virginia on matters pertaining to unemployment insurance, job services, and economic development.
