Invitation

On behalf of TechFetch.com and Roanoke - Blacksburg Technology Council, we would like to officially extend an invitation to our 2012 Tech Job Fair on November 23, 2012 to your students and alumni in Virginia.

The purpose of this event is to connect talented IT job candidates with companies in Virginia. Your students and alumni will be able to meet face-to-face with employers and recruiters.

This will be a great opportunity for your constituency to advance and further their careers. The event will also serve to familiarize your students with TechFetch.com and Roanoke - Blacksburg Technology Council.

Registration FREE for all attendees
