In accordance with the regulations at 20 CFR 655.122(1) governing rates of pay, the wage rate offered herein is the highest of the applicable adverse effect wage rate, the prevailing hourly or piece rate, the agreed upon collective bargaining wage or the Federal or State minimum wage rate, in effect at the time work is performed for every hour or portion thereof worked during a pay period covered by the approved labor certification, the AEWR is subject to go up or

ATTACHMENT 1 TO ETA 790
GLASS HOUSE WINERY 2016

down and the growers will make the adjustments accordingly when the AEWR is published in the Federal Register. All activities not listed as paid by piece rate will be paid by the hour.

Basis of Pay:

Crop Activity	Piece Rate / Unit	Estimate of Hourly Earnings
Grapes	N/A	$10.72
Blueberries	N/A	$10.72

The employer will apply the prevailing hourly rate in a crop activity for which an hourly rate is specified if DOL determines that a higher hourly rate is prevailing in the crop activity in the area of intended employment than the hourly rate specified herein as soon as US DOL provides appropriate written notice to the employer.

A. The employer will make the following deductions from the Worker's wages: All deductions required by law, including, but not limited to, FICA taxes and Federal Income tax, cash advances and repayment of loans, repayment of overpayment of wages to the worker, payment for articles which the Worker has voluntarily purchased from the Employer, long- distance telephone charges, recovery of any loss to the Employer due to the Worker's damage (beyond normal wear and tear) or loss of equipment or housing items where it is shown that the Worker is responsible, and any other reasonable deductions expressly authorized by the Worker in writing. No deduction not required by law will be made that brings the workers hourly earnings below the FLSA Federal statutory minimum wage.

B. Employers guarantee to offer employment for the hourly equivalent of 3/4 of the workdays of the period during which the work contract and all amendments thereto are in effect, beginning with the first workday after the workers' arrival at the assigned Employers place of employment and the worker is ready, willing, able, and eligible to work and ending on the expiration date specified in the work contract or any extensions thereof or upon the termination of this employment as provided in paragraph C below. For purposes of this guarantee, a "workday" consists of six hours daily Monday through-Friday and five hours on Saturday. The worker is not required to work on his Sabbath or on federal holidays which are New Year's Day, January 1; Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday, the third Monday in January; Washington's birthday, the third Monday in February; Memorial Day, the last Monday in May; Independence Day, July 4; Labor Day, the first Monday in September; Columbus Day, the second Monday in October; veteran's Day, November 11; Thanksgiving Day, the fourth Thursday in November; and Christmas Day, December 25. On certain of these days, work may be available. If, at the conclusion of the work agreement, the worker has been offered less employment than required under this guarantee, the employer will pay the worker, at the worker's average hourly rate for the hours actually worked by the worker, for those hours in addition to the hours of work offered, required to fulfill the guarantee. In determining whether this guarantee of employment has been fulfilled, the employer will count as hours of work offered all hours actually worked. In addition the employer may count hours of work offered all hours for which work was offered and not worked which do not exceed a total of hours worked and hours offered but not worked of the normal work hours. The guarantee described in this paragraph shall not apply if the worker voluntarily abandons this employment before the end of the contract period or in the event the worker is terminated for a lawful job-related reason. The guarantee described in this paragraph shall not apply to an H-2A alien worker who is terminated because of the employer's compliance with the requirement to employ all qualified eligible U.S. workers who apply during the first 50% of the employment period in accordance with the rule at 20 CFR 655.122(i)(4).

C. The work contract shall be terminated before the end of the Period of Employment if the services of the workers are no longer required for reasons beyond the control of the Employer due to fire, frost, flood, drought, hail, other Act of God or weather condition which makes fulfillment of this contract impossible as determined by the CO under the regulation at 20 CFR 655.122(o). In such cases, the employer will make efforts to transfer the worker to other comparable employment acceptable to the worker consistent with existing immigration law, as applicable. If such transfer is not affected, the workers will be returned at Employer's expense to the place from which Worker, without intervening employment, came to work for the employer. In the event of such termination, the guarantee described herein at paragraph 17(B), in compliance with the Three-fourths guarantee regulation described at 20 CFR 655.122(i)(l), ends on the date of termination. The guarantee shall be void from the beginning should the Worker voluntarily abandon this employment before the end of the contract period or in the event the Worker is terminated for lawful job-related reason.

GLASS HOUSE WINERY 2016

D. The payroll period shall be weekly. Workers will be paid weekly.

E. In accordance with the regulations governing agricultural clearance orders at 20 CFR 653 the employer will provide a U.S. worker referred through the Agricultural Recruitment System thirty-five (35) hours of work for the week beginning with the anticipated date of need, specified in item 9 of the ETA Form 790 unless the employer has amended the date of need by notifying the local order holding office at least 10 working days prior to the original date of need. If the employer fails to notify the order-holding office, then employer shall pay an eligible worker referred through the interstate clearance system the hourly AEWR Wage Rate for the first week starting with the original anticipated date of need. The employer may require the worker to perform alternative work if the guarantee cited in this section is invoked. If the worker fails to notify the order holding office of his continuing interest in the job no sooner than nine working days and no later than five working days before the date of need, the worker will be disqualified from the above mentioned assurance.

The Employer will furnish to the worker, on or before each payday one or more written statements showing 1. The worker's total earnings for the pay period; 2. If applicable, the number of units produced daily and the piece rates used; 7. Beginning and ending dates of the pay period; and 8. The employer's name, address and IRS identification number; and 9. The worker's net pay.

19. Transportation: In accordance with the regulations found at 20 CFR 655.122(h)(1-4) the following paragraphs under section 17 are the terms and conditions, in their entirety, related to the transportation benefit and related subsistence benefit, when applicable, provided under this clearance order.

The Employer will offer transportation to and from the daily work site (from grower provided housing to field or other worksite and return) at no cost to the workers entitled to the housing benefit described in Section 3 of the ETA Form 790 and paragraph 14 above. For US workers who commute to work daily, the grower will offer free on farm transportation during the work day. Commuting U.S. workers understand that it is their responsibility to get to work on time each day work is available and that they solely assume all liability and costs for their personal transportation to and from work each day and at work if they voluntarily choose to drive. The use of employer provided daily transportation by workers, as described in this paragraph, is voluntary; no worker is required as a condition of employment to utilize the daily transportation on the worksite offered by the employer. Employer will provide free transportation to eligible workers from the housing site to the worksite and return. Workers are always free to choose their own means of transportation at their own expense and liability. Workers who arrange their own transportation understand they assume all liability and hold harmless the growers for any damages, injuries, personal or property losses.

The following paragraphs related to inbound and outbound transportation pertain only to workers who are not within commuting distance and cannot reasonably return to their place of residence the same day and are, therefore, eligible for the benefit.

The Employer will not advance transportation and subsistence costs to the place of employment for any worker.

Conditional Inbound Transportation and Subsistence Benefit Reimbursement

For workers eligible for the inbound transportation and subsistence reimbursement benefit, the Employer will reimburse workers who complete 50 percent of the work contract period and who are beyond commuting distance the reasonable cost of transportation and subsistence from the place from which the worker has come to work for the employer, whether in the U.S. or abroad to the place of employment. The amount of the reimbursement for transportation cost will be the worker's actual transportation cost from the place from which the worker has come to work for the employer to the employer's place of employment or, by regulation at 20 CFR 655.122(h)(1), the amount not to exceed the most economical and reasonable common carrier transportation cost for the distance involved, whichever is less, unless the worker is transferring to the employer (with proper status) from another certified farm, if applicable, from within the United States (which will be the point of departure for calculating the reimbursement unless the previous employer has already paid). The employer reserves the right to assist in coordinating transportation to assure the lowest available inbound transportation cost. Such inbound transportation will be at the worker's expense. Workers who do not avail themselves of such transportation, when available, will be reimbursed only the per worker cost of the employer-arranged transportation or the most economical and reasonable common carrier transportation cost for the distance involved, whichever is less. Workers are always free to choose their own means of inbound transportation at their own liability. Workers who arrange their own transportation understand they assume all liability and hold harmless the employer for any damages, injuries, personal or property losses.

GLASS HOUSE WINERY 2016

Conditional Outbound Transportation and Subsistence Benefit

In compliance with the applicable regulation found at 20 CFR 655.121(h)(2), for U.S. workers who complete the work contract and are eligible for the outbound transportation benefit, the Employer will provide or pay the most economical and reasonable cost of return transportation and subsistence for the U.S. worker from the place of employment to the place from which the worker came to work for the employer, except when the U.S. worker will not be returning to the original place of departure due to subsequent employment with a different employer. If the subsequent employer has not agreed to provide or pay for the U.S. worker's transportation to the subsequent place of employment, the Employer will provide or pay for the transportation and subsistence to the subsequent place of employment in lieu of providing or paying for such expenses from the place of employment to the place from which the U.S. worker originally departed to work for the employer. If the subsequent employer has agreed to provide or pay for the U.S. worker's transportation and subsistence to the subsequent place of employment, this Employer will not provide or pay for such expenses. In order to assure the lowest available outbound transportation cost the Employer reserves the right to arrange or coordinate return transportation for groups of U.S. workers large enough to justify group transportation arrangements. The grower will disburse the return transportation checks as soon as all work is completed, as determined by the Employer, and the worker is ready to depart. U.S. workers may select any means of transportation home they choose, however, the reimbursement is limited to the most economical and reasonable common carrier transportation cost for the distance involved, or the U.S. worker's actual cost, whichever is less. U.S. workers who arrange their own transportation understand they assume all liability and hold harmless the employer for any damages, injuries, personal or property losses.

In compliance with the applicable regulation found at 20 CFR 655.121(h)(2), for foreign workers who complete the work contract and are eligible for the outbound transportation benefit and the foreign worker has no immediate subsequent H-2A employment and is returning to the place from which the foreign worker came to work for the instant employer, the Employer will pay by check the most economical and reasonable cost for the foreign worker's transportation (to the place from which the foreign worker came to work for the instant employer) and will pay for subsistence from the place of employment to the place from which the foreign worker came to work for the instant employer, except when the foreign worker will not be returning to the original place of departure due to subsequent authorized H-2A employment with another employer. If the subsequent authorized H-2A employer has not agreed to provide or pay for the foreign worker's transportation to the subsequent place of employment, the Employer will provide or pay for the transportation and subsistence to the subsequent place of employment in lieu of providing and/or paying for such expenses from the place of employment to the place from which the foreign worker originally departed to work for the instant employer. If the subsequent H-2A employer has agreed to provide or pay for the foreign worker's transportation and subsistence to the subsequent place of employment the Employer will not provide or pay for such expenses. For foreign H-2A workers, subject to the applicable regulation at 20 CFR 655.135(i)(1-2), the Employer reserves the right to arrange and provide return transportation that will comply with the applicable Homeland Security regulations at 8 CFR 214, 8 CFR 215 and 8 CFR 274a requiring the employer to demonstrate a good faith effort to ensure the foreign workers return to their home country in compliance with the applicable laws, and, in a timely manner consistent with the expiration of the visa issued by the Consulate/State Department for the period of employment. The employer will also report workers who abscond, as applicable and appropriate, or be subject to the liquidated damages provisions of the applicable DHS regulations, and other applicable employer focused punitive penalties disclosed in law and regulation. Foreign workers eligible for the outbound transportation benefit, the grower will disburse the checks at the time all work is completed, as determined by the Employer, and the worker is ready to depart. Foreign workers who arrange their own transportation understand they assume all liability and hold harmless the employer for any damages, injuries, personal or property losses. The employer will not reimburse, pay for and/or provide transportation and subsistence to a worker who does not provide documentation of identity and employment eligibility required to complete Form I-9, or who has knowledge at the place of recruitment that he cannot perform the duties of the job as described in this job order, or who abandons his employment, or who is discharged for lawful job related reasons. The Employer will provide or pay for transportation and subsistence under this agreement if the worker is terminated because of work related injury and is so certified by a doctor acceptable to the Employer before leaving the place of employment, or is terminated because of an Act of God which makes fulfillment of the work contract impossible, as provided in paragraph 9C, or if the worker is displaced by a U.S. worker under the 50% rule in 20 CFR 655.122(i)(4). With respect to the statement above regarding providing and/or paying the conditional outbound transportation benefit in the case of a work related injury that ends the worker's ability to continue performing the work for which they were hired for the balance of the employment period, the employer reserves the right to obtain a copy of the "no return to duty notice" from the worker's doctor and/ or request a second opinion from a doctor of the employer's choosing confirming the injury will prevent the worker from returning to work during the period of employment before issuing the outbound transportation benefit. There is no limitation created herein explicit or implied with respect to the worker's right to elect the doctor of their choosing from whom they receive medical treatment.

Daily subsistence reimbursement will be paid to workers who are eligible for reimbursement of transportation costs in accordance with the regulations at 20 CFR 655.122(h)(1-2), which refers to 20 CFR 655.173(a). Employer will pay subsistence reimbursement at a rate of $11.86 per day in the absence of receipts submitted by the worker qualified for the benefit. With receipts, payment is capped at $46.00 per day for this conditional benefit.

The Employer will not advance transportation and subsistence costs to the place of employment for any worker.

Other Conditions of Employment:

18. Discipline and/or Termination: Employer may discipline and/or terminate the worker for lawful job-related reasons and so notify the Job Service local office of the termination if the worker: a) refuses without justified cause to perform work for which the worker was recruited and hired , b) commit serious act(s) of misconduct or serious or repeated violation(s) of Work Rules attached hereto. c) fails after completing the training period to perform the work as specified in Item 11 and Attachment, d) malingers or otherwise refuses without justified cause to perform as directed the work for which the Worker was recruited and hired; e) provides other lawful job-related reason(s) for termination of employment, f) abandons his employment; g) falsifies identification, personnel, medical, production or other work related records, h) fails or refuses to take a drug test, if applicable or i) commits acts of insubordination, j) the employer may terminate the worker (foreign or domestic) with notification to the employment service if employer discovers a criminal conviction record or status as a registered sex offender that employer reasonably believes, consistent with current law, will impair the safety and living conditions of other workers.

Mission and Goals: The Virginia Farmworkers Legal Assistance Project is a federally-funded legal services organization providing legal assistance and community education to migrant farmworkers throughout the Commonwealth of Virginia. Farmwork is the second most dangerous occupation in this country. More than 42,000 farmworkers labor in Virginia, and face numerous problems -- including unpaid wages, pesticide exposure, and on-the-job accidents. The workers' legal issues are compounded by the cultural, geographic, and linguistic barriers they face.
